Description:

Hijinks galore among the deliriously funny ad men and women in this electronic epistolary noveles wickedly hilarious crew from the Miller Shanks Ad Agency is back with more office shenanigans. The staff has moved on to Meerkat360, a sleek and self-consciously hip boutique agency, where they are joined by a fresh cast of industrial-strength nutjobs. Through e-mails, texts, and blog entries they pitch ad campaigns—Estée Lauders new Margaret Thatcher perfume, anyone?—mangle love lives, and barely navigate office and family politics. Armed with the acid wit of e upgraded with the full arsenal of modern cyber tools, e2 leaves you rolling on your cubicle floor and snorting vile vending-machine coffee out of your nostrils.

I quite like this book. I work at an ad agency in Kenya and it showed a hilarious reflection of my work life. I don't know if non-agency people will quite get it, but I really think everyone in the ad-world should read this (and e as well). We might stop jumping agencies so much once we realise they're all EXACTLY the same. We might stop taking ourselves quite so seriously too, which will make our lives far less dramatic and way more fun :-). Also, how cool is it to write an entire novel in e-mails, SMS, and MSN? Very nice.
